One of the famous causes in which Mr. Smith ever took part was the celebrated trial of the Impeachment of ex-Governor Holden, which took place before the Senate of North Carolina sitting as a High Court of of Impeachment, and presided over by the late Chief Justice of the State. On this trial Mr. Smith, although a life-long political opponent, was se lected by the Governor as one of his counsel, and made the closing argument in his defence, and throughout the whole trial displayed an ability and legal learning that stamped him as one of the greatest lawyers, and one of the acutest and most logical reasoners in his profession in the country. His closing speech made a pamphlet of over seventy pages.

Of late years Mr Smith has held no public station, his political disabilities not being removed until the 17th of February, 1873. In 1874, he received the honorary degree of LL. D. from Wake Forest College in this
